CIMC Staff Participated in WIOA State Plan: Roadshow for Public Input

Roadshows for Public Input were held to communicate the vision and strategies; receive feedback/input on how the State of California (via the State Plan) can better facilitate regional leadership, alignment with industry, system integration for scale, new ideas and innovative practices, etc; engage local boards and their stakeholders; and set-up for Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) regional planning. CIMC staff attended all Roadshows in CIMC's service area during the month of December 2015. CIMC staff were able to share comments for inclusion and collaborative work at the sessions.

Free Career Web Series

The poster features a teal and white color scheme. At the top, a teal circle contains the word "Be" in white. Below it, the text "Be+ CAREER WEB SERIES." is displayed in large, bold, black letters. Three teal circles list the topics: "Be a Paralegal/Lawyer 2.23.16", "Be in Healthcare 3.10.16", and "Be an Entrepreneur 4.20.16". A small black circle with "11 AM PST" is next to the second topic. At the bottom, it says "California Indian Manpower Consortium, Inc. & Workin' Skills into Careers Project presents - An Ongoing Web Series About Careers for Native Americans -". A registration box contains the text: "Join CIMC once a month for an inside look into different career paths with tips and resources provided by industry experts, partners and employers. FREE to attend, but must register prior to the event by contacting CIMC Central at 916-920-0285 or email kristis@cimcinc.com".

The CIMC WorkingSkills into Careers (WSC) project presents a new webinar series called Be+ which will focus on career paths for Native Americans. Each month CIMC and WSC will host a FREE webinar that will take a closer look at a particular industry facilitated by employers and partners.

CIMC Native Entrepreneur Training Program Update

The 2015-2016 CIMC Leadership Training for Entrepreneurial / Small Business Economic Development continued on January 12-13, 2016 in Alpine, CA. The Native entrepreneurial students continued the 4-month training course on developing a business plan and learning about day-to-day business operations. Thank you to Councilman Brown of the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians for the great welcome.

Thank you to our training faculty for Session 2: G. David Singleton; Panda Morgan, Small Business Consultant; Kenneth Banks, Artist (2005 Graduate); Angela M. Medrano, JD, Attorney-at-Law; and Kathy Willcuts, Small Business Owner (2010 Graduate).

Session 3 will take place at the Feather Falls Casino & Lodge in Oroville, California. Native community members are welcome on a walk-in basis but will need to call in advance.

Upcoming Schedule:

February 23-25, 2016 - Oroville, CA | March 22-23, 2016 - Tuolumne, CA

For information, contact Teresa Marie Willson, CIMC Native Entrepreneur Training Co-Coordinator at teresaw@cimcinc.com or (916) 920-0285.

Development Sponsors:

We also appreciate the support of our CIMC Native American Workforce Investment Council Members (Ben Bendel, Kim Edward Cook, and Dave Singleton).

As in years past, CIMC continues to see a severe decrease in funding from the US Department of Labor and is finding it increasingly more difficult to cover the expenses of this training. As such, we continue to seek support for the continuation of this investment in Native communities.
